Educational/Professional Background

- Master of Laws (LLM), University of Melbourne, Faculty of Law – Australia
- Doctor of Jurisprudence (JD), Case Western University Law School – USA
- Bachelor of Science (BSc), Guilford College – USA
- Current: Senior Foreign Counsel and Co-Chair of International Dispute Resolution Practice, Yulchon LLC, Seoul – South Korea
- White's practice focuses on commercial transactions and international disputes involving business and investment interests in Korea, North America, Indonesia, Singapore, Central Asia and the Middle East, including Islamic law, finance, and insurance (takāful). Backing up his effectiveness as a persuasive cross-border and cross-cultural negotiator, he has practiced law internationally for more than 35 years.
- Immediately prior to joining Yulchon, White was head of a practice group for London-based DAC Beachcroft, with a particular focus on cross-border finance/investment and insurance facilities involving the Middle East, London, and South East Asia, and he was previously a Partner in the US-based law firm of Patton Boggs (now Squire Patton Boggs).

- From 2005–2015, White was also a Senior Fellow in the University of Melbourne, a professor in Singapore Management University, and a visiting professor in Gadjah Mada University and Universitas Islam Indonesia, as well as universities in the US, EU, and Asia.
- Drawing from his unique practice and academic expertise in dispute resolution, risk mitigation, and contract negotiation and drafting, particularly in the context of Islamic cultures, White has been a frequent lecturer at professional conferences and seminars throughout Asia and the Middle East, together with television and radio commentaries on the BBC, Channel NewsAsia, and other media. In addition, he has been published widely in various magazines, newspapers, and professional journals in Asia, the US, and the Middle East, as well as books published by Oxford University Press, Wiley & Sons (Wiley Finance Series), and McGraw-Hill.

Mediation Experience

Mediation Education and Training

White was trained in 1992 as a Court-Certified Mediator and was certified by the North Carolina (USA) Dispute Resolution Commission (Administrative Office of the Courts) as a mediator in the Mediated Settlement Conference Program of the State Courts. He completed the SIMC Specialist Mediator training program in 2018, as part of the first group in Korea to be trained by SIMC.

Some Professional Affiliations

White was formerly an Adjudicator in Singapore's Financial Industry Disputes Resolution Centre (FIDReC). He is a Fellow of the Singapore Institute of Arbitrators (SIArb), and he also holds an appointment to the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC-Paris) Task Force on Financial Institutions and International Arbitration. He also has passed the Bar Examinations and been admitted to the US State Bars of Florida, Georgia, North Carolina and Colorado, as well as the United States District (trial courts) and United States Circuit Courts of Appeals in those States. Since 1992, he also has been admitted and has appeared as counsel before the United States Supreme Court.
