

SINGAPORE INTERNATIONAL
MEDIATION CENTRE

SIMC Specialist Mediator's Curriculum Vitae

Personal Particulars

First Name	Arie Chase
Surname	Eernisse
Designation	Foreign Attorney (US)
Organisation	SHIN & KIM

Educational/Professional Background

Education

2012 Duke University, School of Law (J.D./LL.M. in International & Comparative Law)
2007 Wesleyan University (B.A., with honors and phi beta kappa, in East Asian Studies)

At Duke University School of Law, I was a staff editor of the Duke Journal of Comparative & International Law.

Professional Background

I am a foreign attorney in the International Dispute Resolution Practice Group at Shin & Kim.

I have advocated on behalf of a diverse array of Korean and foreign clients in arbitration matters governed by the rules of the KCAB, ICC, HKIAC, SIAC and other institutions. I have been involved in disputes about mergers and acquisitions, sale of goods, resource exploration, construction, financial investments, intellectual property, military and defense procurement, tortious conduct and more.

Prior to joining Shin & Kim, I served as a law clerk to a federal judge at the U.S. Court of International Trade in New York City.

Mediation Education and Training

SIMC Specialist Mediator's Course in Seoul (January 2018)

Some Professional Affiliations

Attorney-at-Law, New York (USA) (2013)
Member, International Bar Association
Fellow, Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (FCIArb)
Member, American Chamber of Commerce in Korea