

Fahmi Shahab is Executive Director and mediator of Pusat Mediasi Nasional (PMN) or The Indonesian Mediation Center. He is a facilitative mediator for court-annexed and out-of-court on commercial, banking, services, as well as family disputes. He has been the main instructor on certified mediation trainings with PMN. He was a Senior Short Term Expert, EU-Indonesia Trade Cooperation Facility, Technical Assistance on Alternative Disputes Resolution to Indonesia Investment Coordinating Board (BKPM), Aug-14 until Nov-16. He was a member of the Mediation Working Group with the Supreme Court and served as a trainer and a coach for certified judge mediator training in collaboration with the Supreme Court's pilot project for Court-Annexed Mediation at the Supreme Court's Training Centre. He engaged in mediating corporate as well as small medium enterprise loan disputes during Indonesian economic crises 2000-2003 at the Jakarta Initiative Task Force.

He holds a Master of Business Law (AusAID-ADS Scholarship) from University of Sydney, Australia and a Sarjana Ekonomi (SE) degree in Economics and Development Study from Gadjah Mada University, Indonesia.