Educational/Professional Background

Alison Chang is qualified in Taiwan, Mainland China and New York State. She is a Fellow, an approved faculty and lecturer of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (CI Arb). She is also the founding and immediately retired chair of CI Arb Taiwan Chapter's Young Members Group. She has been listed on the panels of arbitrators of Chinese Arbitration Association, CAA International Arbitration Centre, Taiwan Arbitration Association, Chinese Real Estate Arbitration Association, Hangzhou International Arbitration Commission as well as Japan Commercial Arbitration Association, and she has been listed on the panel of China Specialist

Mediators of Singapore International Mediation Centre. She is appointed by International Chambers of Commerce as a North Asia Representative of Young Arbitrators Forum.

Alison started as a practitioner at law firm in Taipei in 2005 and then served as a Judge at Taipei District Court from 2007 to 2012. In 2015, she relocated to Beijing and joined King and Wood Mallesons as a senior associate until late 2020. In 2021, together with Dr Helena Chen, she founded Chen & Chang, a boutique law firm focused on alternative dispute resolutions. She often acts as counsel on a wide variety of commercial related disputes before courts at all levels in Taiwan and in arbitrations.

Alison also specializes in M&A, FDI and cross-border transactions. She has represented a number of international and domestic companies in their investment in Taiwan, mainland China and around the world, spanning the areas of manufacturing, automobiles, pharmaceutical & medical device, high-tech, media and entertainment. She has extensive experience in providing comprehensive legal advice, including but not limited to structuring, negotiation and contract drafting, in cross-border investment and private equity transactions, and was instrumental in such transactions.

Alison obtained her Bachelor of Business Administration from National Taiwan University. She later received her master's degree of law from National Taipei University and her LL.M. from Columbia Law School.

Alison is fluent in English, Mandarin Chinese and Taiwanese.
